Our superbly entertaining and highly popular after dinner quiz show.

This ever popular and superbly entertaining quiz is guaranteed to break the ice, get every member of audience involved and create an event to remember. That Was The Year That Was is a riotous combination of all your favourite quiz shows. It draws teams into a veritable time tunnel of history using archival footage, photomontages, music and sound bites.

Fast-paced and highly-interactive this event tests teamwork as well as brain cells. Drawing on their powers of recall and observation, teams have to draw on the knowledge of every member and work together quickly to decide on their correct answers and fill in their scorecards. With questions on subjects that include sport, movies, music, world events and trivia there is something for everyone. Additional rounds of questions can be added to best suit your audience, conference messages and theme.

While the archival clips and questions are always amusing, it will be the comments from the teams that really make the event. The funniest comments are fed back to the participants between rounds before the correct answers are revealed.

To build tension and ensure involvement throughout the quiz the identity of the winning teams remains in the balance right up until the last question.

That Was The Year That Was is a fantastic team challenge that is a sure fire way to create a fun and memorable experience while reinforcing your conference messages and team spirit.
